

CNSF DISCLOSURE FORM

This disclosure form must be included as the third page of your Course Notes and the third slide of your presentation

It is the policy of the Canadian Neurological Sciences Federation to insure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all of its education programs. Members involved in the programming of the Congress are expected to disclose any real or apparent conflict(s) of interest that may have a direct bearing on the subject matter of the continuing education program. This pertains to relationships with pharmaceutical companies, biomedical device manufacturers, or other corporations whose products or services are related to the subject matter of the presentation topic. The intent of this policy is not to prevent a member with a potential conflict of interest from being involved. It is merely intended that any potential conflict would be identified openly.
